

This is an example summary document which should always be read in conjunction with the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Handbook.

You can adapt this document to local circumstances and can share it with staff and volunteers to promote consistency and good working practices. It can also be shared with parents for information.

It should be reviewed regularly (at least annually) and immediately if new activities are developed.

General Guidelines for all activities

1. Whenever possible, have two or more adults present with a group. Avoid being on your own with any child. (An obvious exception will be taking a young child to the toilet).
2. Avoid transporting a child home on your own – preferably have another helper with you or else ensure that the last two children are dropped off together. In the event of an emergency, make sure you inform a leader as soon as is possible.
3. Be wise in your physical contact with children. Holding a child's hand or offering a hug when they are upset is often a good way to reassure or comfort a child but always ask "Would you like a hug?" rather than assume. We all have different boundaries and these should be respected. Keep everything public. A hug in the context of a group is different from a hug behind closed doors.
4. Never smack, hit or physically discipline a child.
5. Treat children and young people with dignity and respect in attitude, language used and actions.
6. Respect the privacy of children but do not promise to keep secrets and generally do not enter into private or intimate conversations with children and young people on your own. (See also 9. below)
7. Discuss any concerns immediately with the safeguarding coordinator/ leader or supervisor.
8. Avoid activity and comments which could be questionable or misinterpreted e.g. rough/provocative games or comments and, if you feel a child may have a "crush" on you, talk to a leader for advice.
9. We do want to support young people appropriately. Be wise when listening to a young person's problem/ offering advice and support. Ensure that others know the discussion is taking place or that someone else is around.
10. Be mindful of the safety of children and young people at all times.
11. Be mindful of your own safety at all times including protecting yourself from allegations. (All actions should be open and transparent and accountable).
12. Be willing to listen to advice and comments from the leader of the activity or the child safeguarding coordinators.
13. It should be accepted that anyone seeing another worker acting in a way which causes concern or could be misinterpreted should speak to the individual and a leader about the concern.
14. Leaders and helpers of activities should regularly meet to discuss how the group is going, share information and pray for the young people in the group.
15. Activities and contact should be open and transparent.
16. An opportunity should also be regularly created (no less than annually) to review procedures, update training, share concerns and identify any other matters that may need clarity or guidance.

DON'T KEEP CONCERNS, QUESTIONS AND WORRIES TO YOURSELF.
